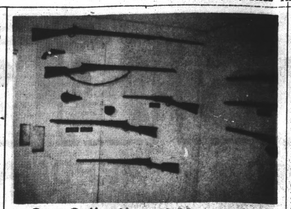
Gun Collection at Museum



Among his large collection of Colt guns is one with a beautiful gold-plated grip made by Tiffany of New York. Along with guns he has collected swords, one of which is a Navy cutlass sword also made by Tiffany of New York. Wight stated that the gun in the 1800's was a status symbol to a man, much as a car or boat is today.

Each gun Wight has in the collection is historically significant and as he tells you about them, it seems that history begins to come alive.

Guests stopping at the "museum" at the Grey-Blue Motel (formerly the Parkway Motel) are in for an unexpected treat, for next door to the motel is one of the most impressive gun collections that one could imagine. Lew Wight, his wife Linda, daughter Suzanne and son Colt are the new owners.

Ford Sales Managers Earn Membership

Thirteen sales managers from Ford dealerships in southern Virginia and eastern Carolina have earned membership in the Ford Society of professional Sales Managers.

Members of the Society of professional Sales Managers from Lawson Ford, Inc., Appomattox, were E. B. "Dick" Bland, Vice-President and Manager; and Jutson Morris, Sales Manager, retired.

Members are selected on the basis of their professional excellence and the attainment of high standards in dealership sales management, according to James C. Sutherland, Ford Division's Richmond district sales manager.

The managers and their wives were honored at a banquet on June 30 at the Willow Oaks Country Club in Richmond, when each winner received a distinctive membership ring and picture plaque.

YOUNG HEARTS CLUB

The Young Hearts Club held its regular monthly meeting on June 24th. at Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church. There were 41 members and 2 visitors in attendance.

The Reverend Otis Smith opened the meeting with a prayer. After which, Mrs. Helen Gunter, President, presided over the business session. She presented to the group the expense of three different trips which she had investigated. The decision was tabled until the next meeting. Roll was called and minutes of the last meeting was read by Mrs. Robinson. Miss Nola Burkey gave the treasurer's report. It was voted to have a picnic for our July meeting. This to be had at the old Rocks Church Picnic Grounds. Ladies from the Rocks community will provide drinks for the occasion.

After the business, members assembled in the recreation room of the church and enjoyed slides shown by Mrs. Otho Martin Jr. These were historical in nature and decicted places of interest beginning in Jamestown and extending throughout the southeastern States and as far west as Memphis on the Mississippi River.She ended with scenes of our own historical Appomattox and its celebrations.

Lunch was then had by the group with drinks and dessert served by the host church members. The meeting adjourned.

PAUL H. SMITH, State Manager of Southwest Virginia, right above, is shown presenting the Woman of Woodcraft Award to Margie W. Doss and the Mr. Woodman Award to Fred Weakley. These two Woodmen were voted to be the recipients by their fellow Camp and Grove Sovereigns.
